Accreditation Program

In 1992, IAAE announced the IAAE professional accreditation program for airport executives. Tailored specifically to individual countries/regions, the program is modeled after the AAAE accreditation program. The requirements consist of an original management paper on some phase of airport management, a comprehensive written test and an oral examination. Upon successful completion of these requirements, the Accredited Airport Executive is admitted to the membership as an accredited member and may use the designation of Accredited Airport Executive (A.A.E.) after his/her name.

Airport Magazine

Airport Magazine is AAAE's bimonthly magazine that contains in-depth stories on issues important to airport executives and corporate members worldwide. The Magazine, currently read by more than 30,000 individuals in the airport community, focuses on management issues, new products in the marketplace, airport construction and trends for the future

International Airport Report

International Airport Report was IAAE's monthly newsletter designed to keep airport managers up to date on the techniques and tools of airport administration, operation and maintenance. Past copies are still available.

IAAE members have access to AAAE's Airport Report.

IAAE Membership Directory

The IAAE membership directory, included in the IAAE Executive Manual, contains a complete listing of the names, titles, addresses and telephone and facsimile numbers of IAAE members.

Airport Management Library

AAAE's management reference library is available for use by IAAE members. The library is one of the few authoritative sources of airport management information.

The AAAE Annual Conference & Exposition

Held in May each year, the AAAE annual conference offers AAAE and IAAE members three full days of informative lectures, panels and group workshops. The annual exposition,
